

extends congratulations with the hope that the omen, "Happy is the bride the sun shines on," will also include the groom, who made a most favorable impression upon all who met him and that their lives may be as bright and sunny as the beautiful December day upon which they were wed.

Hillen-Johnson.

Henry F. Hillen, son of the late Peter Hillen, of Arrow Rock, and Miss Sadie J. Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Johnson, of this city, were married on Wednesday afternoon, Dec 27th, at 3 p. m. at Slater, Mo., Father Currey, of the Catholic church, officiating.

The bride, a pretty blonde, has been employed at the office of the Citizen in this city, and is a very lovely young lady; she wore a pretty traveling dress of blue cloth with trimmings of white silk, gloves and hat en suite. The groom, a thrifty young farmer, wore the usual black.

The attendants were Miss Dora Hillen, sister of the groom, and Mr. Otis Craig, of Arrow Rock.

Mr. and Mrs. Hillen left immediately after the ceremony for Arrow Rock, which will be their home in the future.

The REPUBLICAN extends congratulations to this young couple, starting out on life's journey, hoping they may ever find a path way of roses, to cheer them on their way.

Rippy Garst

Mr. William Rippey of Denver and Miss Josephine Garst, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Garst of this city, were married at the home of the bride on College Hill on Wednesday at high noon, Rev. E. E. Morris performing the ceremony.

The wedding was a very quiet one, no one but the family and Misses Belle Campbell and Fannie Taylor, close friends of the bride, being present.

The bride was beautifully gowned in an art green creation, with trimmings of pale green chiffon and passementerie.

The happy couple left on the 3:30 C. & A. train for Denver, where they will go to housekeeping upon their arrival. The good wishes of the REPUBLICAN and of many friends accompany them to their new home.

Miss Fannie Wood entertained A E. Huston, of Denver, and Charles Galois, a prominent young attorney, of Shreveport, La., at dinner on Wednesday evening.

FISHER BOYER.

The Bride and Groom Two of Marshall's Social Favorites.

Wedding bells have been busy this week in Saline. The Fisher-Boyer nuptials were prettily celebrated at the home of Mrs. Little V. Jackson on East Arrow St., Wednesday morning at ten o'clock in the presence of the immediate relatives and a few close friends.

To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Mrs. John Lynott, of Louisiana, the bridal party entered the parlor in the following order: the attendants, Dr. Mott, of St. Louis, and Miss Stella Burton, of Gilliam; Miss Jessie Sparks and Gordon Letterman, of Louisiana; Miss Fisher, sister of the groom, from Lamonte, Mo., and Clayton Lamkin, the groom and his cousin, Mr. Fisher, of Sedalia, the maid of honor, Miss Estella Boyer, followed by the little ring bearer Katherine Viley, a beautiful child, appropriately dressed. Then came the bride on the arm of her father, Mr. W. L. Boyer. The party took their places near the south end of the room, the bride and groom standing in the large bay window that had been beautifully decorated for the occasion, while Rev. J. F. Kenper performed the ceremony to the strains of "Call Me Thine Own," softly and beautifully played by Mrs. Lynott on the piano.

The bride, a tall beautiful brunette, as graceful as a willow, was handsomely dressed in a brown cloth traveling dress, with brown velvet bolers jacket and trimmings of cream applique with waists of lavender silk and a handsome hat of violet velvet, with brown birds, and brown fur, with bunches of large purple violets that were most becoming; she carried brides roses.

The groom, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Fisher, of Lamonte, Mo., is a handsome, dignified, young man who taught for some years in the Marshall High School and is at present principal of the School at Miami, was dressed in the usual black.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Fisher received the congratulations of the relatives and friends and left on the 10:40 C. & A. train for East. They will be at home to their friends at Miami, Mo., after Jan. 1st.

The REPUBLICAN extends congratulations with the hope that the new life entered upon by these two may prove a blessing and joy unto the end.

Delightfully Entertained

A most enjoyable social function of the week, was a little reception out at Highland given by Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Huston at their ever pleasant home on Tuesday evening as a compliment to Mr. A. E. Huston of Dyer, and Mr. and Mrs. James Dall Atkins, of Humsaville.

Music was the principal amusement of the evening and quite a fine programme of a happy selection of music, was rendered, in which Misses Ruth Strong, A. K. Huston and Mrs. James Atkins gave some vocal numbers charming all within reach of their voices. Miss Gussie Strong who is unlike most musicians, is always so accommodating gave some instrumental selections that were appreciated.

A luncheon consisting of ham pato chips, scalloped oysters, olives, hot rolls, fruit cake, and coffee was served by the hostess, who was assisted by Mrs. Harry Huston.

The invited were Misses Frances Vawter, Grace Campbell, Alice King, Pat Parrish, Minnie Murrell, Gussie Strong and Ruth Strong, and Messrs. P. H. Van Dyke, M. P. Lyons, O. T. Goodwin, A. E. Huston, Ole Gracia, Wm. Walker Jr., and Joe Swinney.

A Compliment to James and Wife.

Dr. and Mrs. D. C. Gore were at home in a charmingly informal manner on Thursday evening, Dec. 28th, when a number of friends were entertained in honor of Mr. and Mrs. James Dall Atkins, and Mrs. Belle Graves, of Humsaville. And this pretty home, with its many elegantly graced fires and beautiful works of art, never looked handsomer than upon this occasion.

Music by Mesdames G. A. Wright and W. S. Huston, of a lovely nature made the evening all the more enjoyable. Mrs. Atkins will be better known by her maiden name of Alberta Graves, one of the most beautiful women in Missouri today, and this was a pleasant opportunity for her friends who had never met her husband in person. A tempting lunch was served during the evening, when the business was assisted by Miss Ethlyne Jackson.

Menu—Turkey, hot key salad, cranberries, hot rolls—olives, coffee and cake.

The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Dowling, Ed Pemberton and wife, Leola Orser, and wife, G. A. Wright and wife, H. V. Gophart and wife, H. H. Parsons and Miss Ethlyne Jackson, Charley Bell and wife, Robert Reynolds and wife, J. C. Patterson and wife, W. S. Huston and wife, Mrs. H. L. Huston, James Atkins and wife and Mrs. Belle Graves.

Club Reception

The pretty home of Miss Agnes Spencer was thrown open on Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 26th to the Sans Souci Club. The entertainment was in honor of Miss Nell Coons, of Mexico, and Mrs. T. M. Rainey of this city and the hours from 3 to 6 passed most pleasantly. Miss Agnes entertains with much ease and cordial informality and can congratulate herself upon having given to the club and the invited, a delightful afternoon.

A luncheon of turkey, salad, punch, olives, wafers, coffee and cake were served.

Later in the evening from 8 to 4 Miss Agnes entertained a party of ladies and gentlemen, when the hostess introduced an interesting and novel game, consisting of sentences describing a word. For instance—Not Difficult—Answered by two letters, E. Y. This little game proved both pleasant and profitable until the hour for refreshments.

Those present upon this occasion were, Misses Sadie Buckland, May Brandon, Mary Northern, B. K. Parrish, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Rainey, and Miss Nell Coons, Messrs. Thomas Lacy, Clayton Lamkin, Ben Striker, Thomas Buckland of St. Louis, and Harry Francisco.

T. Q. Club

Marshall has certainly kept up with any town of her size in the state this week—socially speaking—and the holidays have been pleasant y spent by people of all classes. One of the enjoyable social functions of the week, was the meeting of the T. Q. Club with Miss Uela King on Thursday afternoon.

This happy bunch of young people meet for the purpose of having a good time and they are never disappointed. They entertain themselves with games, music, cards, recitations, etc. They entertain regularly every two weeks and we wish for them many happy meetings during the New Year of 1900.

A delicious luncheon was served by Miss Uela consisting of turkey, oyster patties, olives, celery, potato chips, hot biscuit, coffee and variety of cake.

The guests upon this occasion were, Misses Frances Napton and cousin, Miss Napton from Montana, Misses Louise and Virgie Woodbridge, Anna Zott, St. Louis and Ellen T. Woodson of Kentucky.
